In brief

Main Street Beatrice, the Kensington, and Beatrice 1450/KWBE are working together to preserve these important memories. The community is invited to share their memories of the Robert F. Kennedy speech at Charles Park.

To share a story, visit the Kensington on Wednesday, Sept. 1, at 10 a.m. Beatrice 1450/KWBE will be there to record memories so they will be preserved in the community's history.

speaking memories
Main Street
Robert F. Kennedy spoke in Charles Park on Friday morning, May 10, 1968, to a crowd of 3,000 people.
This historic event is an important part of the history and character of Beatrice. Similar to many other significant events, the residents of Beatrice and surrounding communities still remember when, how or where they were during the Kennedy speech.
